League of American Orchestras

Student Membership

Founded in 1942, the League of American Orchestras champions the vitality of music and the orchestral experience, supports the orchestra community, and leads change boldly. Join the League to become an orchestra insider and make personal connections in this national network of 1,600 organizations and individuals.

Student membership is best suited for those currently enrolled in college (including both undergraduate and advanced degree programs) and is also open to those who recently graduated.

Student Membership - FREE!

Receive all the benefits of Individual Membership at a discounted price, including access to:

- Free early bird registration* for the League's National Conference in June.
- Member savings on all events, including webinars and seminars.
- Online programming throughout the year on topics specially tailored to students.
- League360 online member forums, including a group just for student members.
- Bi-weekly roundup of orchestra news from Symphony.
- Part of a League member organization? Upgrade your inherited benefits with a 50% discount on a Professional Membership.

*Free registration is limited and first-come, first-served. After we run out, students can attend at a deeply discounted rate.

Student Professional Membership - $80

If you are interested in developing your career in the orchestra field, Student Professional Membership is designed for you. You will receive all of the benefits of Student Membership plus:

- Access to the League's Job Listings website with listings and notifications of available positions.
- You can post your resume where it is available to member orchestras looking for new employees.
- A copy of the annual print edition of Symphony magazine.

St. Louis Society for the Blind and Visually Impaired

Since 1911 the Society has been enhancing independence, empowering individuals and enriching the lives of people who are visually impaired or blind.

It is our goal to reach diverse and underserved populations of the blind and visually impaired.
To increase awareness of products and services to the minority blind community.
To ensure equity and inclusion for all ethnicities.

Computer Giveaway

Register for your chance to receive a FREE COMPUTER

Hello St. Louis families!

Don't have a working computer at home? We're here to help!

Compudopt's goal is to make sure all families have the access they need to thrive in today's digital world. That's why we are a non-profit organization dedicated to providing computers and free or low cost internet solutions to families who need them.

Compudopt treats the security of our users' private information as our number one priority; that's why we will never sell your data and instead only use it to help you better access the digital tools, connectivity, and support you've requested. No purchase necessary and no age restriction to participate. Compudopt is not responsible for any lost, stolen, or personally-damaged devices. Device recipients will be determined by the selected Community Based Organizations. The devices will be provided on a first-come, first-served basis while supplies last. Compudopt reserves the right to modify or cancel the event for any reason. See event staff for full terms and conditions.

To qualify for the computer giveaway, you must not currently own a working computer at home. Computers come with a 2-year warranty and free tech support!

Scan the QR code or visit compudopt.org/st.louis to register! Families are randomly selected and will be notified via text and email if selected.
