Established 1911 - St. Louis
Society for the Blind and Visually Impaired

St. Louis Society for the Blind and Visually Impaired

Since 1911 the Society has been enhancing independence, empowering individuals and enriching the lives of people who are visually impaired or blind.

It is our goal to reach diverse and underserved populations of the blind and visually impaired.
To increase awareness of products and services to the minority blind community.
To ensure equity and inclusion for all ethnicities.

Come see how we can help!
